

Seminar at Fort Bragg to Focus on Effectively Managing Diverse and Challenging Personal Styles in the Workplace

Soraya (Morgan) Gutman,
president of Morgan
Business Solutions

2011-11-19 - Soraya (Morgan) Gutman, president of Morgan Business Solutions, will present an engaging and motivating educational seminar on Thursday, December 8th to two groups of senior leaders at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, on Effectively Managing Diverse & Sometimes Challenging Personal Styles at Work. This seminar is part of the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) organized by Ms. Lisa Lofton-Berry for its military leaders.

With a talent for harnessing the best in people, Soraya understands how to inspire leaders to bring out the best in themselves and their teams. Due to popular demand, the seminar will be presented twice, one at 9:00am and the other at 1:00pm to approximately 80 military supervisors in total. Her focus will be on identifying what she calls the Eight Commandments of Effective Leadership and how the first, Know Thyself, is the most crucial in being able to effectively lead others and build a solid, productive, and positive team. Both presentations will be very interactive and followed by a Q&A session.

Morgan Business Solutions offers mentoring, seminars, and training services to executive leaders and their staff. Soraya and her team reignite passion for your work by turning theory into action with practical, hands-on help and advice that works. What makes Morgan Business Solutions unique is that they can help you reach your specific business goals in a way that is measurable, empowering, purposeful, and full of joy.

To learn more, contact Morgan Business Solutions (www.morganbizsolutions.com), e-mail info@MorganBizSolutions.com or call 919-424-4386.

Contact Information:

Morgan Business Solutions

Chapel Hill, North Carolina

Contact Person:

Soraya Morgan, President

Phone: 919-424-4386

Web: <http://www.morganbizsolutions.com>